

CIFA announces a new phase in its own governance: Paolo Gandola is the new CEO

Senago, November 25th 2025 – CIFA announces a change in its top management.

The Board of Directors has accepted Davide Cipolla's resignation from the role of Chief Executive Officer.

After a long career within the company, which began in 1992, and fifteen years at the helm of the CIFA Group, close to the time of retirement from work, Cipolla has decided to step down from his role as CEO. This decision stems from a desire to begin a new phase of the company and of his personal life and fully shared with the Zoomlion group, for which he will continue to work for a period, taking on responsibility for strategic initiatives in Italy.

During his tenure, CIFA underwent a significant phase of industrial development and expansion of its international presence, consolidating its expertise, processes, and production facilities. The Group recognizes his central role in the growth of recent years and in building the solid relationships that characterize the CIFA brand today.

He will be replaced by Paolo Gandola, who has been appointed by the Board of Directors as the new CEO of CIFA and Deputy General Manager of Zoomlion's Concrete Machinery Business Unit.

Paolo Gandola, former CFO of the Group and with extensive experience at CIFA, which he joined in 2008, takes over the helm of the company with the task of continuing CIFA's industrial and commercial evolution.

The Group thanks Davide Cipolla for his work and contribution to the development of CIFA and wishes Paolo Gandola every success in his new role.
